1932, 1933, AND 1934

JANUARY 14, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Reference is made to merchandise imported during 1930, 1931, 1932, and 1933, as to which, under the authority of proclamations issued by the President on December 23, 1932, December 30, 1933, December 21 and 22, 1934, and January 11, 1936, the statutory three-year warehousing period was extended by the Secretary of the Treasury for certain limited periods (T. Acting under the authority vested in him by section 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930, 46 Stat. 696 (U. S. C. title 19, sec. 1318), the President, on December 29, 1936, issued a proclamation¹ declaring an emergency to exist and authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to extend the warehousing period for a further period of not more than one year in the case of merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1930 (both dates inclusive), and between January 11 and December 31, 1931 (both dates inclusive), and between January 11 and December 31, 1932 (both dates inclusive), also to extend the warehousing period for a further period of not more than one year in the case of merchandise imported during the entire calendar year 1934, all subject to the following conditions:

Provided, however, That in each and every case the Secretary of the Treasury shall require that the principal on the warehouse-entry bond, in order to obtain the benefits under the extension granted, shall either furnish to the collector of customs for the district in which the merchandise is warehoused the agreement of the sureties on such bond to remain bound under the terms and provisions of the bond to the same extent as if no extension were granted, or furnish an additional bond with acceptable sureties to cover the period of extension.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the proclamation of December 29, 1936, the period during which merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1930 (both dates inclusive), and between January 11 and December 31, 1931 (both dates inclusive), and between January 11 and December 31, 1932 (both dates inclusive), and between January 11 and December 31, 1933 (both dates inclusive), and merchandise imported during the calendar year 1934, may remain in warehouse is hereby extended for a further period of one year; and collectors of customs are hereby authorized (1) in the case of merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1930 (both dates inclusive), to permit such merchandise to remain in warehouse for a total period of not exceeding eight years from the date of importation, (2) in the case of merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1931 (both dates inclusive), to permit such merchandise to remain in warehouse for a total period of not exceeding seven years from the date of importation, (3) in the case of merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1932 (both dates inclusive), to permit such merchandise to remain in warehouse for a total period of not exceeding six years from the date of importation, (4) in the case of merchandise imported between January 11 and December 31, 1933 (both dates inclusive), to permit such merchandise to remain in warehouse for a total period of not exceeding five years from the date of importation, and (5) in the case of merchandise imported during the calendar year 1934, to permit such merchandise to remain in warehouse for a total period of not exceeding four years from the date of importation, provided that in each case the principal on the warehouse-entry bond shall either furnish the agreement of the sureties on such bond to remain bound under the terms and provisions of the bond to the same extent as if no extension were granted, or furnish an additional bond with acceptable sureties to cover the period of extension.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF A ROYALTY INTEREST IN THE HYLAND-CAMPBELL FARM, FILED ON JANUARY 11, 1937, BY GRIMES BROS. ROYALTY CO., RESPONDENT

SUSPENSION ORDER, ORDER FOR HEARING, (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND ORDER DESIGNATING TRIAL EXAMINER

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe, and therefore alleging, that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named therein is incomplete or inaccurate in the following material respects, to wit:

1. In that the date in Division I when the information contained in the sheet will be out of date is miscalculated, based upon Item 4 of Division II;

2. In that the statement is made in Item 13 of Division II that "Production from this pool has reached a monthly output exceeding 200,000 barrels." An order of the Texas Railroad Commission of December 21, 1936, has fixed an allowable production for the Ray Pool below the figure used in your Item 13;

3. In that the name of the horizon is omitted in Item 18 (a) of Division II;

4. In that the signature at the end of Division II does not disclose whether the offeror is an individual using a fictitious name, a co-partnership, a corporation, or other form of business organization;

5. In that, upon information believed to be reliable, it is believed that the statement in Item 4 of Division III respecting certain tests and determinations made by the Texas Railroad Commission are unfounded in fact;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the Commission's General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, suspended until the 17th day of February 1937 that an opportunity for hearing be given to the said respondent for the purpose of determining the material completeness or accuracy of the said offering sheet in the respects in which it is herein alleged to be incomplete or inaccurate, and whether the said order of suspension shall be revoked or continued; and

It is further ordered that Charles S. Lobingier, an officer of the Commission, be and hereby is designated as trial examiner to preside at such hearing, to continue or adjourn the said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, consider any amendments to said offering sheet as may be filed prior to the conclusion of the hearing, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered that the taking of testimony in this proceeding commence on the 1st day of February 1937 at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as said examiner may designate.
